

You are Invited to a Guatemalan Extravaganza

An Adult Evening to Celebrate Guatemalan Food &
Music and Raise Money for the Cooperative for Education

We hope that you can make it!!

When: Friday, February 26 from 6:30-10:30

Where: Reception Hall – St Thomas Church in Terrace Park, OH
100 Miami Ave – Terrace Park, OH 45174
www.stthomasepiscopal.org

Cost: $40 per person or two for $75, payable in advance. This price includes homemade Guatemalan food and dessert, marimba music, soft drinks, and two tickets per person for beer or wine (cash bar after that). ALL proceeds benefit the Cooperative for Education.

Raffles and silent auction items will be available during the event, so please bring your checkbooks.

RSVP – Registration form and money MUST be received before Feb 13 in order for the women to know how much food to prepare. Send registration to Babette Northrop – 9328 Lansford Dr – Cincinnati, OH 45242-6710. (513)-985-9846, bnorthrop@fuse.net.

Cooperative for Education (www.coeduc.org) is a non-profit that creates sustainable textbook, computer center, reading, scholarship, and library programs in Guatemala.

This is the 5th annual event by Friends Through Guatemalan Adoptions (FTGA) (www.ftga.net) of Greater Cincinnati to support CoEd. Event chairs are Jennifer & Dave Withrow, Maggie & Karl Gieseke, and Babette & Mark Northrop.

Guatemalan Extravaganza

Registration

Name(s): _____

E-mail: _____

Address: _____

Phone number: _____

Payment: $40 for one person or $75 for two people

Make check payable to FTGA (Friends Through Guatemalan Adoptions).

Mail to Babette Northrop – 9328 Lansford Dr – Cincinnati, OH
45242-6710

Remember, ALL proceeds benefit Cooperative for Education, an amazing non-profit that supports the country we all love.